

STRATEGIC PLAN

2023-2028

CANADIAN INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH ON LINGUISTIC MINORITIES

The National Research Hub on Official Language Minority Communities

WHY?

- To enhance the vitality of Francophone minority communities and English-speaking communities in Quebec

by producing and mobilizing scientific knowledge:

- Research watch
- New knowledge production
- Disseminating results
- Collaborative research

WHO?

- A team dedicated to researching and publishing the journal Linguistic Minorities and Society and the collection Langues officielles et sociétés

- Guided by a board of directors representing various Canadian institutions
- Supported by a program committee representing teaching and research institutions

- A network of associate researchers

- Several partnerships and collaborations with community organizations

HOW?

- Strategic goals

- Contribute to the advancement of knowledge and the development of interventions and policies
- Work with partners to foster research and create opportunities for exchange
- Stimulate the interest of the research community and the student population in issues affecting linguistic communities

- Research areas

- Populations and contexts
- Identity and diversity
- Voices and actions
- Development and growth

- When choosing themes, methodologies, and research environments, approaches that promote:

- Equity
- Diversity
- Inclusion
- Decolonization

ICRML
Institut canadien
de recherche
sur les minorités
linguistiques

CIRLM
Canadian Institute
for Research on Linguistic Minorities

