

ICRML
Institut canadien
de recherche
sur les minorités
linguistiques

CIRLM
Canadian Institute for Research on Linguistic Minorities

Hi,

New survey regarding Francophone and Acadian Minority Communities

Title: What happens after high-school? A pan-Canadian study of the educational aspirations and intentions of 12th grade pupils from French-language minority schools, pursuing a career in their community.

Authors: Réal Allard, Kenneth Deveau and Rodrigue Landry

For now, the summary of the study is accessible online at the following address:

http://www.millenniumscholarships.ca/images/Publications/090429_AUFC_SOMMAIRE_finale.pdf

The complete report will soon be accessible online at the following address: <http://www.icrml.ca/>

Launching QUESCREN

The Quebec English-Speaking Communities Research Network (QUESCREN) was launched on April 17, 2009.

QUESCREN is a joint initiative between the Canadian Institute for Research on Linguistic Minorities and the School of Extended Learning (Concordia University), which brings together researchers and community representatives who are interested in the development of research regarding Anglophones in Quebec.

For more information, visit our website at: <http://www.icrml.ca/>

Publication of the third volume of Brendan O'Donnell

Title: Sources for the study of English-speaking Quebec: An annotated bibliography of works produced between 1990 and 2008.

In collaboration with the Canadian Institute for Research on Linguistic Minorities and the School of Extended Learning (Concordia University).

For a copy, please contact Lorraine O'Donnell, Coordinator and researcher, QUESCREN (<mailto:lodo@videotron.ca>)

If you wish to contribute to "Encyclopédie du patrimoine culturel de l'Amérique française"

The Encyclopedia is presently looking for authors and articles on Acadia. If you wish to submit one or more articles, or share findings from your research on either Acadian history or society (making sure that the information is accessible to the general public), do not hesitate to contact Martin Fournier at Université Laval (Martin.Fournier@celat.ulaval.ca) or Anne Robineau at Université de Moncton (anne.robineau@umoncton.ca).

For more information, please consult "Historique et résumé du projet" (Background and summary of project) and "Directives aux auteurs" (Instructions for authors).

For more information, visit: <http://www.ameriquefrancaise.org/>