NEW

New research group at the Université de Moncton: Groupe de recherche et d'innovation sur l'organisation des services de santé (GRIOSS)

GRIOSS objective: Directed by Sylvain Vézina, this group will carry out research activities on three themes regarding minority settings: 1) organizational models and language planning services, 2) governance, co-operation among network stakeholders, professional resource management and planning, and 3) use of health services and their use by the Francophone population. This group will be formed by a core of dynamic collaborators chosen among the best Canadian and international researchers. Please note that Éric Forgues will be responsible for the first research theme.

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Encyclopédie du patrimoine culturel de l'Amérique française

The Encyclopédie du patrimoine culturel de l'Amérique française is looking for article proposals on Francophone and Acadian community heritage in the Maritime Provinces. This can mean articles on activities regarding culture, plant and animal life, sites and monuments, as well as groups and individuals who have marked the history of their communities. For examples of article, please go to the following address: www.ameriquefrancaise.org/fr

For the Atlantic Region, please submit your articles to Anne Robineau, coordinator, at anne.robineau@umoncton.ca.

Texts must be short (1,500-2,000 words) and written for the general public. They must be accompanied by illustrations (i.e. photos, video, musical excerpts, etc). $150 is offered for each article.
