CIRLM
Canadian Institute for Research on Linguistic Minorities

Hi,

A new researcher has joined the CIRLM

We are very pleased to inform you that Anne Robineau has been hired at the CIRLM. Mrs. Robineau holds a Ph.D. in sociology and carries out research in the arts and culture of Francophone minorities in Canada.

For more information on her training and to access some of her publications, please visit our website: http://www.icrml.ca/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=249&Itemid=168

Anne Robineau is replacing Christophe Traisnel who has obtained a faculty position in the department of political science at the Université de Moncton. Mr. Traisnel remains a CIRLM associate and will continue to participate in the Institute's research projects. The CIRLM team wishes him much success with his new responsibilities.
